Attend the Democratic rally on Wednesday night.

No boss dictates the policy of the Democratic party. All Democrats are independent.

Don't be a bolter or a whiner. Your turn will never come unless you stay in the ranks.

The case of the Hawkeye statesman will be duly attended to at the Democratic rally Wednesday night.

An honest count of the votes in New Mexico this year will give Hon.
O. A. Larrazolo about five thousand majority.

Fight out your troubles in your own party. You cannot win a victory for either country or party by joining the enemy.

Only two more weeks until election day, when the people will ratify the nominations made at the Democratic primaries.

Better be the water-carrier who earns a ticket to the circus than to be the biggest elephant ever captured and chained to a stake.

Hon. J. F. Hinkle is the right kind of an "Independent" Democrat. "You may lick me in the primaries, but you can't drive me out of the Democratic party."

The saloons at Artesia have closed, failed to renew their licenses, and threaten to start a little hell of their own, with gambling, etc., just outside the town limits.

In the interest of good government the Democrats and Republicans of Santa Fe county have fused to chief Boss Catron and the grafters' clown counsel, editor of the New Mexican.

There is not a candidate on the county ticket who will lack fifty votes of polling the full Democratic strength of Chaves county. Remember this, and see if the Record is not correct.

Judge A. A. Freeman has formally announced that he will not be an independent candidate for delegate to the constitutional convention from Eddy county. This leaves the field to Captain Bujac.

Independence doesn't necessarily mean being a bolter. It means freedom. America is a free country, but to leave America just because a man is independent does not mean that he will better himself.

Of course we could not blame a Republican for bolting Andrews—for the voters have no voice in the nomination of Republican candidates.
But in the Democratic party the voters, not the bosses rule.

The worst thing about the newspaper fight in Eddy county is the exposure of the fact that as good a man as Judge Freeman is guilty of writing mean personal attacks on the Democratic candidates. Even the most secret sins are bound to find a man out.

"The Optic is now willing to accept less than ten thousand majority for Andrews. This is coming down some, but there will be another drop before election day. The Republicans appear to be up against an honest count this year, and therefore the chances of Republican success are mighty slim.—Albuquerque Advertiser.

There is only one safe course for a man who writes for publication, and that is either to sign his name or place his name at the head of the editorial column, which is equivalent.
Even as good a man as Judge Freeman, writing without the feeling of responsibility, fell into the error of writing things that got his paper into trouble.

Coming from the New Mexican, we take the declaration as official that Delegate Andrews will wreak vengeance against the Pecos Valley for the mean things said about him by the Daily Record. But if Mr. Andrews threats are no more potent than his promises the Pecos Valley may survive.

Judge G. A. Richardson is a good type of an "Independent" Democrat.
Though he knew his view to be unpopular and that it would prevent his nomination for delegate to congress, he came out boldly against jointure and in favor of single statehood. But who ever heard of Judge Richardson bolting a Democratic ticket? He abides by the decision of the majority at the primaries and on election day votes the ticket straight.

A mass meeting was held at Carlsbad Saturday night for the purpose of nominating an independent or non-partisan candidate from Eddy county for delegate to the constitutional convention. It was intended to name Judge A. A. Freeman, but the final result was the endorsement of Capt. E. P. Bujac, the Democratic candidate for delegate. By his attack on Capt. Bujac through the Carlsbad Argus, it is stated that Judge Freeman has "queered" himself politically in Eddy county.

If the Record were a Republican paper, it would not urge any voter to support Delegate Andrews,—neither as a Democratic paper does it advocate the election of any man who is unworthy of support. Questions of character and morality are non-partisan, and from that standpoint, we do not hesitate to state that there is not a man on the Democratic ticket of Chaves county who is not as good a man, or a better man in every respect than his Republican opponent. Other things being equal, all Democrats should vote the Democratic ticket straight. We admit that all the Republican candidates are excellent gentlemen and good citizens, and take it for granted that they do not approve the plan of attack adopted by the Republican county central committee. At least four of the candidates have already so assured us.

A Democratic Rally will be held in the District Court room Wednesday evening, Oct.
24. Meeting will be called to order promptly at 7:30 p. m.
All friends of honest, economical government in County, Territory and Nation are cordially invited to attend.

This is a ratification and Democratic love feast.
Speeches will be made on county, Territorial and National issues. County finances and home government will be fully discussed. Territorial questions will also be handled by speakers who know whereof they speak.

Speakers of the evening will be:
Hon. J. O. Cameron, nominee for Councilman.
Hon. J. W. Mullins, nominee for house of representatives.
Capt. E. P. Bujac, of Carlsbad.
Major Mark Howell, nominee for superintendent of schools.
Hon. J. T. Evans, candidate for Probate Judge.
Hon. Smith Lea, and other county candidates, including Neighbor Gayle and Johnnie Peck.

Other speakers will be Hon.
C. R. Brice, of Carlsbad, Hon.
G. A. Richardson, Hon. U.
S. Bateman, Hon. K. K.
Scott, and Hon. J. F. Hinkle.
—Rousing Democratic addresses. Come out one and all to hear the glad tidings.
